DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1 and 7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Harff (3,452,736), which shows all of the claimed limitations. Harff shows, among other things, a support system for a portable grill including a grill bottom 32, a first rack 36, the grill bottom having a set of coplanar openings 31, a set of legs 12 with support members 30 for extending through the openings in the bottom for supporting the rack by gravity without any additional fasteners, and wherein the legs are fastenable, via 14, to each other separate from the grill bottom. While Harff does not specifically recite that the legs are metal, it is nevertheless inherent and at least supported by the cross sectional view of figure 3 where it is clear from the cross hatching drawn in the legs is the similar to that of fastener 14, specifically recited to be metal (col. 1, lines 69,70).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. The factual inquiries set forth in Graham v. John Deere Co., 383 U.S. 1, 148 USPQ 459 (1966), that are applied for establishing a background for determining obviousness under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) are summarized as follows:

1. Determining the scope and contents of the prior art.
2. Ascertaining the differences between the prior art and the claims at issue.
3. Resolving the level of ordinary skill in the pertinent art.
4. Considering objective evidence present in the application indicating obviousness or nonobviousness.

5. Claims 4 and 5 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Harff (3,452,736) in view of Glaser (3,611,915). Harff does not specifically recite toggle latches for latching the legs to the grill cover. Glaser teaches a latching member 27,27' for latching the legs to the cover for convenient positioning of the cover. While Glaser does not specifically recite the term toggle, giving the term its broadest reasonable interpretation, the structure satisfies the limitation.

Allowable Subject Matter

6. Claims 8-18 are allowed. It should be noted that the preamble recitation was given weight as the body of the claims depend on the preamble for completeness.

7. Claims 2, 3, and 6 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Prior Art

8. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. These references disclose grills with many of the claimed components. Nevertheless, in order to avoid overburdening the applicant with redundant rejections, these references were not applied.
